Oral History Agreement (Interviewee)

This Agreement is made and entered into the __________ day of ________________, 20____, by and between The University of Texas at Arlington and ________________________________, "hereinafter called "Interviewee." Interviewee agrees to donate to the UT Arlington Library a recorded interview, tentatively entitled "Interview with ____________________________," conducted by ______________________________," on _______________ at
__________________________.
This Agreement relates to any and all materials originating from the interview, namely the recording of the interview, a written transcript (should one be created) prepared from the recording, and any reproductions or digital representations of the interview, hereinafter collectively called "the Work."

In consideration of the mutual covenants, conditions and terms set forth below, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

o Interviewee irrevocably assigns to the UT Arlington Library all his or her present and future copyright, title, and interest in and to the Work, including the right to reproduce such materials in copies of audio cassette, printed form, video, phono-records, on the Internet, and/or successor technologies, to distribute copies (in the aforementioned forms) to the public, to perform or display the work publicly, to prepare derivative works thereof, and to have others do so for research purposes. This assignment applies to the Library, its successors, and assigns, for and during the existence of the copyright and all renewals and extensions thereof.

o By virtue of the assignment, the UT Arlington Library will have the right to use the Work for any research, education, or other purpose that the Library may deem appropriate.

o Interviewee understands that the donated materials and works reproduced from them are not protected by archival or scholar's privilege (because no such privilege exists) and therefore will not be protected from subpoena.

o Interviewee agrees to public use of the recordings and transcripts, including the aforementioned forms of reproduction, under the following condition, if initialed:

☐ Closed for a period of ___ months/years, as of the date of the interview.

o The Work will be subject to the researcher regulations of the UT Arlington Library Special Collections.

o Oral history interviews will be transcribed contingent upon availability of adequate staff and funding.

o Interviewee will receive from UTA, free of charge, one copy of the typewritten transcript of the interview (should one be created) and one copy of the recorded interview.

o To ensure against substantive error or misquotation, an Interviewee whose interview is transcribed will have the right to review the transcript before it is put into final form. The UT Arlington Library will therefore send Interviewee a copy of the edited transcript for review and comment. Interviewee will return transcript and comments to the UT Arlington Library within 45 days of the date of the cover letter sent by UT Arlington with the transcript. In the event that Interviewee does not respond within 45 days, UT Arlington will assume that Interviewee has given full approval of the transcript.

o All notices and other correspondence concerning this Agreement will be sent to the following:

Library Address: UT Arlington Library, Special Collections, P.O. Box 19497, Arlington, TX 76019-0497

Interviewee's Address: ____________________________________________________________

You may be entitled to know what information UT Arlington collects concerning you. You may review and have UT Arlington correct this information according to procedures set forth in UTS 139. The law is found in sections 552.021, 552.023 and 559.004 of the Texas Government Code.

_______________________________________________________________
UT Arlington Representative's Name UT Arlington Representative's Signature Date

_______________________________________________________________
Interviewee's Name Interviewee's Signature Date